Jack Dalrymple
Governor

EXECUTIVE ORDER 2013-05

WHEREAS, the Lignite Research Council was reformulated by Executive Order 2013-02, dated March 27, 2013; and

WHEREAS, the Council was created to establish policies and practices related to lignite research, as well as to coordinate lignite research efforts to make recommendations for funding to appropriate funding sources, and to generally assist in research funding efforts; and

WHEREAS, the lignite industry is critical to the economic well-being of the State of North Dakota, and the discovery of new products and viable alternate uses for lignite will benefit all citizens of the state, as well as those within the lignite industry; and

WHEREAS, legislation has been agreed to, which will provide funds for lignite research, to enable and encourage the participation of private funding sources and state and federal agencies in those research efforts; and

WHEREAS, the development of North Dakota's lignite resources should proceed in an orderly manner that is beneficial to land owners, miners and processors of lignite and in a way that is responsible to future generations of North Dakotas; and

WHEREAS, members of the Lignite Research Council have recommended that the Council be restructured.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jack Dalrymple, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of North Dakota, do hereby:

- I. Reestablish a Lignite Research Council, appointed by the Governor, and consisting of 30 members including:
  - A. Three lignite mining representatives;
  - B. Seven lignite processing representatives;
  - C. Seven lignite research representatives;
  - D. Five representatives of state agencies involved in lignite matters;
  - E. One representative of federal agencies involved in lignite matters;
  - F. One representative from the labor community;

- G. Two representatives from the North Dakota Legislature;
- H. Two representatives representing lignite ownership; and
- I. One representative from a political subdivision.
- J. One public member

- II. That the Council will meet at least semi-annually and at the request of the Executive Committee for the purposes expressed herein.
- III. The Council shall elect a chairperson, vice-chairperson, and five of its members to serve as an Executive Committee to act on behalf of the Council between Council meetings. The Executive Committee shall meet at the request of the chairperson.

This order is issued on the basis that the Governor is vested with the Executive authority pursuant to Article V, Section 1 of the North Dakota Constitution, and pursuant to NDCC 54-17.5.02.

Executive Order 2013-02 is hereby rescinded.

Executed at Bismarck, North Dakota this 23rd day of April 2013.
